

Dash for Daffodil Day

A fun and active way for schools to support life-changing cancer research this Daffodil Day.

How it works

1

Choose a day in August

Choose a day in August for your school's fundraiser.

2

Set up a fundraising page

Share with your community to collect donations.

3

Wear yellow

Students come dressed in yellow, gold or their brightest Daffodil Day colours.

4

Run or walk

Students complete a dash around the oval, playground or local track.

5

Celebrate together

Bring your community together to support Aussies affected by cancer

Fundraising idea

-  Gold coin donation to participate
-  Class fundraising competitions to see who can raise the most
-  Family and Friends sponsor students to dress in yellow

Every dollar makes a difference

-  $25 Can help equip researchers with essential lab equipment.
-  $50 Can help researchers discover more about how cancer develops.
-  $100 Can help fund up to two hours of a research assistant's time.

Why your school should join

-  Encourages healthy activity
-  Builds school spirit and community
-  Teaches students about giving back
-  Supports Australians impacted by cancer
