

For all that cancer takes, give back.

Get your organisation on board and volunteer this Daffodil Day,
Thursday, August 25.

Option 1 - Adopt a site.

- Select a site & define the shift times
- Nominate a Team Leader to liaise with Cancer Council
- Coordinate the volunteers
- Manage your stall on the day (i.e. set up, restocking, cash management & banking, WH&S, pack down).

Resources supplied:

- Fresh daffodils, lapel pins & equipment all supplied
- Delivery of items to your office or direct to your site
- Face-to-Face training and online training provided for the Team Leader.

Option 2 - Join a site.

- Select a site that suits you
- Reserve a shift(s) - shifts start from just 2 hours!
- Nominate a Lead to liaise with Cancer Council
- Recruit your team of volunteers & ask them to register
- We can keep track of the funds you raise during your shift.

Resources supplied:

- Cancer Council will recruit the site Team Leader(s)
- Cancer Council will take care of logistics and banking
- Fresh daffodils, lapel pins and equipment is provided
- Online training and role information sent to you via email.
