

DAFFODIL
DAY
DIP

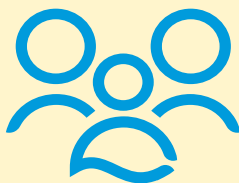

Will you join us as we do the Daffodil Day Dip?

The Daffodil Day Dip has quickly become a much-loved yearly ritual for Australians affected by cancer. Whether it's in honour of a loved one or mate, or to mark your own cancer journey, a cold Dip is a meaningful way to connect to a cause affecting so many of us.

This Daffodil Day, _____
(insert name of community group)
is raising funds for Cancer Council. We're taking to the cold waters to support people affected by cancer, and raising funds for ground-breaking cancer research.

We're Dipping in honour of the many people in our community affected by cancer.
